SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Before we continue to the resolutions, I would like to introduce some guests of the Legislature this morning. They are from the Nebraska Council of Youth, the annual Legislative Government Day, and they are in both balconies. Would you people please stand and be welcomed by your Legislature. Thank you for being with us. We will now proceed to LR 52, introduced by Senator Crosby.

CLERK: Mr. President, LR 52, found on page 1064 of the Journal, asks the Legislature and the citizens of Nebraska to recognize the tremendous accomplishments of the Mid-America Arts Alliance and its Chairperson, Wallace Richardson.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Crosby.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members. It is just a real privilege for me this morning to introduce this resolution to recognize the Mid-America Arts Alliance. The states that are involved in this are...it's a private, nonprofit arts organization whose partners include the state arts agencies of Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas, with financial support from the National Endowment for the Arts and private contributions. It's a Nebraska tradition that the Mid-America Arts Alliance has its president from Nebraska. Jim Olson, who is a historian, and many of you have read his history of Nebraska, he was Chairman of the Mid-America board for seven years, and he is now President Emeritus of the University of Missouri, and a former Vice-Chancellor of the University of
